The 44th annual Glass Art Society conference held last weekend, June 3 - 7, in San Jose, California, focused on the theme “Interface: Glass, Art, and Technology.” Out of the usual plethora of demos, lec-mos (lecture-demo hybrids), and awards – this year’s Lifetime Membership went to artist,

“When you support the Council, you help new ideas grow and flourish, you make it possible for important questions be asked and thoughtfully considered, and you support opportunities for everyone to be included in the conversation.”
